

WHERE UNCLAIMED SETTLEMENT FUNDS DO THE MOST GOOD

As near as possible to the people a settlement was meant to protect.

HOW A CY PRES AWARD WORKS

2025 BY THE NUMBERS

1,643

clients represented
each with an NLSP attorney in 2025

5,695

people in client households
each case protects a household

17%

growth in new cases
from 1,418 in 2024 to 1,665 in 2025

8,000+

residents reached including clinics and outreach

WHO WE SERVE

90%

of our clients are people of color
81% are African American

68%

of our clients are women
82% of clients with children

15%

of our clients are seniors over age 65

1,510

children in client households across 710 matters in 2025

Our clients live in all eight wards, most of them east of the Anacostia River, and include veterans and returning citizens.

WHERE CLASS CLAIMS MEET OUR WORK

- | | | | |
|--|--|--|---|
| Consumer debt and junk fees
Collection defense, garnishment limits, and fees illegal in DC | Credit reports and tenant screening
Reporting errors that cost residents jobs and apartments | Criminal records and background checks
Record sealing and inaccurate background reports | Wages and employment
Unpaid wages, discrimination, and license denials |
| Housing and tenant rights
Eviction defense, repairs, and unlawful rent claims | Public and subsidized housing
Voucher terminations and housing authority due process | Lending, student loans, and financial aid
Student debt relief and predatory loan defense | Repossession and auto lending
Repossessions, deficiency balances, and related collections |
| Public benefits
SSI, SSDI, SNAP, TANF, and unemployment denials | Healthcare access
Medicaid denials and housing conditions that harm health | Fair housing and disability
Discrimination claims and reasonable accommodations | Contracts and warranties
Deceptive sales and faulty goods and services |
| Home repair and homeownership
Contractor fraud, tax sales, and housing cooperatives | Families and survivors
Custody, child support, and civil protection orders | Veterans and older adults
VA benefits advice and discharge upgrades | Antitrust and data privacy
Rent overcharges and identity theft relief |

WHY NLSP IS THE RIGHT BENEFICIARY

Nexus to the class

Class action harms reach our offices one resident at a time, across every claim type.

A neighborhood presence

Offices in NoMa and Deanwood, library clinics, and clients in all eight wards.

Reach that multiplies

Pro bono attorneys, referral partners, and community justice workers extend our reach.

Accountable stewardship

A Legal Services Corporation grantee, reporting to class counsel and the court.

Let's talk about your next settlement.

Paris M. Scott, J.D., Director of Development and Communications
PScott@nlsp.org | 202.290.1858 | nlsp.org

64 New York Ave NE, Suite 180
Washington, DC 20002

Engaging Communities • Eliminating Barriers • Securing Justice